Golden Text | Romans 1:7 Grace, 11

. . . Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. . . . For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

Responsive Reading | Romans 1:9, 10, 12 II Corinthians 8:1–3, 5, 7, 9, 12, 15

- 9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I mention you always in my prayers,

The Responsive Reading is from the Revised Standard Version of the Bible.

- 10 asking that somehow by God's will I may now at last succeed in coming to you.
- 12 that is, that we may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine.
- 1 We want you to know, brethren, about the grace of God which has been shown in the churches of Macedo'nia,
- 2 for in a severe test of affliction, their abundance of joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of liberality on their part.
- 3 For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own free will,
- 5 and this, not as we expected, but first they gave themselves to the Lord and to us by the will of God.
- 7 Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in utterance, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in your love for us—see that you excel in this gracious work also.
- 9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich.
- 12 For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what a man has, not according to what he has not.
- 15 As it is written, "He who gathered much had nothing over, and he who gathered little had no lack."
